

Nominations Open for Roebourne Women's Community Awards

Community members are now invited to nominate women who have made a positive contribution to their local community, as part of the Strong Beautiful Women Community Awards.

The Awards aim to recognise and celebrate the achievements of women across a range of categories, including Community Woman, Senior Woman, Young Woman, Business Woman and Health Care Champion.

The 2014 categories include:

Community Woman of the Year

This award recognises local volunteers who show leadership in their community. This woman is an inspiration to others.

Senior Woman of the Year

This award is to recognise a woman who is a leader and mentor in her community.

Young Female of the Year

This award is to recognise a young woman who serves as a good role model in the community.

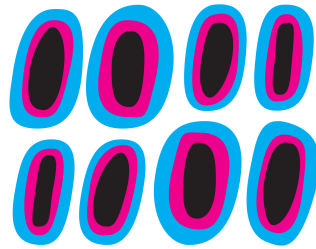

Business Woman of the Year

This award recognises local women who have excelled in business at the same time as contributing to their community.

Health Care Champion

This award recognises women who have demonstrated a commitment to improving health for women and children in our community.

Winners of the community awards will receive generous prizes donated by REFAP.

Nominations can either be emailed to tamara@impactmediakarratha.com.au or dropped off to the Woodside office in Roebourne before the closing date of Monday October 6, 2014 at 5.00pm.

Winners will be announced at the Strong Beautiful Women Gathering, to be held on Thursday October 16, 2014 at the North West Jockey Club in Roebourne.

The gala dinner is now in its eighth year, initiated in 2007 by Violet Samson, a senior Ngarluma elder, to connect and support women from different Aboriginal language groups and non-Indigenous women.

Guests at this year's event will again be treated to a delicious gourmet buffet, with special guests including award-winning entertainer Mary G as the MC, and Australian pop star Christine Anu.

Women are also reminded to RSVP their attendance at the Strong Beautiful Women Gathering to tamara@impactmediakarratha.com.au.
